Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 4-6 and 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 4 the phrase "sandal-like" is vague and indefinite because it is not clear what structural limitations applicant intends to encompass with such language.

In claims 5 and 6 the phrase "the roughly flat underside" lack antecedent basis rendering the claims vague and indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, and 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Fasse (4843672).

Fasse shows an apparatus comprising a footbed made from resilient material (12) and attachment means at the front (5) and rear (7) as claimed.

In reference to claim 11, Fasse states that the angle (c) is less than 15 degrees and this angle appears to be the same as the angle of the footbed as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fasse in view of Koniuk (4619059).

Fasse shows an apparatus substantially as claimed except for the exact bottom layer/tread. Koniuk teaches making the bottom layer (22) and tread (shown in figures 5 and 8) from a resilient material. It would have been obvious to form the bottom layer and tread from resilient material as taught by Koniuk in the apparatus of Fasse to provide a more comfortable and gripping sole surface.
